Interest rate on deposits

924. SHRI RAJKUMAR DHOOT: Will the Minister of FINANCE be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that both public and private sector banks have been benefited to the extent of over Rs. 1500 crore by cut in the rate of interest on savings;

(b) if so, whether Government propose to direct banks to utilize this unearned benefit for social and public utility services or some long-term infrastructures;

(c) if so, the details thereof; and

(d) if not, how this money will benefit public interest and Government?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE (SHRI ANANDRAO VITHOBA ADSUL): (a) No, Sir. While rate cut on savings deposit has reduced interest outgo of banks by about Rs. 1243 crores, there has also been reduction in lending rates leading to less interest income.

(b) to (d) Do not arise.

Outsourcing of inspection by DCA

925. SHRIMATI BIMBA RAIKAR: Will the Minister of FINANCE be pleased to state:
